Opening April 7

You took a leap of faith with us.

It's hard to convey how grateful we are to the churches, community groups and individual donors who believed Appalachian Hills Pregnancy & Parenting Center was possible. AHPPC will open Tuesday, April 7, 2026. A public open house and ribbon cutting ceremony will be scheduled in May.

Your continued prayers and donations ensure AHPPC is always ready to share God's love with local mothers, fathers and children. We're eager to bless families in ways we can't even imagine. Thank you!

OUR SERVICES

AHPPC provides free pregnancy tests, compassionate support, prenatal planning, maternity clothes and infant gear, prenatal and postpartum education, spiritual care, mentors for mothers and fathers, life skills and parenting classes, and more.

AHPPC services are free and confidential.

COMMUNITY CRIB PROJECT

Thank you to all the churches who have signed up to host the community crib!

Any church or organization can request to participate and accept donations.

We'll deliver a small, half-sized crib to your location. Fill it with diapers and wipes. We'll collect everything at the end of the month.

November and December 2026 are still available! Give us a call: 330-401-3947.

WHO WE ARE

We love Jesus. We have a heart to protect mothers and babies from abortion. We hope to nourish and strengthen families.

AHPPC is a non-profit Christian organization operated by a board of directors. The Center Operations Director oversees daily management and a staff of Christian volunteers.

AHPPC offers free, faith-based services and is solely supported by individual donors, area churches, and community groups.
